13. Application for the Change of Ownership of Tricycle Franchise

As a general rule, franchise, being a privilege is hereby declared non-transferable, except when the transfer is made to legitimate spouse, parents, children, brother/sister, or when both franchise holder and transferee are members of the same accredited Tricycle Operators and Drivers Association.

Provided, further, that, the transferee is a bonafide and actual resident of the municipality, and qualified under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Provided, however, that a person whose franchise had been cancelled or revoked for any violation of the provisions herein, or of any law or municipal ordinance of similar application shall be disqualified to transfer his/her franchise to persons specified in this section.
